GALLERY PROGRAM SUMMER 2019-2020

EXHIBITIONS

21 NOVEMBER - 5 JANUARY

SYMPHONY IN H2O SENSE OF SOUL

Artists Louise Corke, Petra Daecke and Joanne Power Cotton, known as 'Sense of Soul' present their interpretations of water in nature through paintings.

EARTH + FIRE STANTHORPE POTTERY CLUB

Earth + Fire refers to the elemental forces at the core of creation in clay and its transformation by fire, fuelled and ignited by challenge and inspiration.

SMASHING BARRIERS OF JUDGEMENT LYRA PARKER

Art is her adventure in life and part of her journey.

LOOKING FORWARD AND LOOKING BACK STANTHORPE STATE HIGH SCHOOL

EXHIBITIONS

9 JANUARY - 16 FEBRUARY 2020

STANDING STILL RHONDA ARMISTEAD

Come on a 2000km journey along the backroads and highways to discover the lost, abandoned and still standing old buildings and sheds.

SEASONS GAYLE SHAW

Gayle's feelings of wonder about the natural environment are expressed in the colourful glass objects through both simple and complex designs with the aim to evoke feelings of peace and resonate with the landscape.

RESONATING REFLECTIONS JANNE CHEW

Janne examines a variety of disciplines: Resin on glass and resin on wood makes up a substantial section of the work that explores the freedom of the medium and vibrant colour. Janne also works with alcohol inks and acrylic, watercolour and pastel art.

STANTHORPE ART PRIZE 2020 ENTRIES NOW OPEN

The Stanthorpe Art Prize is now open for entries and is offering a total prize pool of $50,000. This biennial prize has been running since 1972 and is one of the most valuable regional art prizes in Australia.

Entries close 16 March 2020. All mediums of artworks are accepted except audio-visual. The theme is open. There are strict size limits, so please check the terms and conditions before entering.

The judges for this award will be Simon Elliott—Deputy Director, Collection and Exhibitions, QAGOMA (Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art) and Rachael Parsons—Director, NERAM (New England Regional Art Museum).

The Stanthorpe Art Prize exhibition will be on show from 5 June to 29 July 2020.

We invite all Australian artists to enter this art prize.
